

TRAIN	: Andean Explorer
JOURNEY	: Spirit of the Water – Cusco to Puno
Journey Duration	: Up to 2 Days

Day 1- Cusco

Board the train in Cusco, the former capital of the Inca Empire. Settle into your private cabin, and take the time to relax into the indulgent atmosphere of the train. Perhaps head to the Observation Car, order a classic Pisco Sour, and watch the scenery unfold.

Later, take a seat in one of the two sophisticated dining cars for a delicious lunch. Anticipate refined Andean specialties served with contemporary flair.

As the afternoon continues, disembark for an excursion to Raqch'i. Once a defensive stronghold of the Inca Empire, today the area is a captivating archaeological site brimming with history.

Return to the train for canapés in our bar car as your journey southeast continues. As evening descends, savor a picturesque sunset framed by the majestic La Raya mountains.

As the train continues to Lake Titicaca station, enjoy a delicious dinner on board. Complete your evening in the Lounge Car: trade stories with your fellow travelers before retiring to the comfort of your cabin.

Day 2 - Puno

After a wonderful overnight trip, bid the crew farewell and continue with your onward travel arrangements.
